MONTHLY MEETING OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONERS. Board Declines to Contest the Injune

Evening Star Bureau, No. 701 King Street, Bell Telephone No. 106. ALEXANDRÍA, Va., May 2, 1901. The regular monthly meeting of the board of police commissioners was held last evening in the police court room, with Commissioner Herbert Bryant in the chair. In regard to the injunction which was ordered to be served on the commissioners yesterday by Judge Charles E. Nicol of the circuit court, as stated in The Star, restraining the commissioners from executing their order for a change of men at the police station, Commissioner Bryant stated that the members of the board, as law-abiding citizens, expected to submit to the injunction. Most of the session was taken up with a review of the circumstances attend-Henry Washington, colored, has instiing the surrender of one Thomas O'Brien by Chief Webster to the Washington authorities. O'Brien was arrested in this city the latter part of March, charged with vagrancy. The next day he was turned over to an officer from Washington, although it tuted suit, through his attorney, James R. Caton, against the Southern Railroad Com-told him to let the Washington authorities take the prisoner if they wanted him. Chief Webster told in detail the circumstances connected with the affair, and then the board went into executive session for half an hour. At the conclusion it was announced that a resolution had been adopted deciaring that Captain Webster had acted in the matter within the scope of his official duties. The board then adjourned.

The change necessitated the presence in Alexandria of all the deputy stamp collectors in the district, which com prises Lynchburg, Danville, Martinsville Bedford City and several other towns. Major Inghram and two department experts from Washington are here attend-ing to the accounts. It is expected that the work will be completed this evening or tomorrow morning. It is stated on good authority that the Alexandria office has had first-class rating at the department ever since it has been in the hands of

Believed to Have Been Drugged. A stranger giving his name as William McDuffle and claiming Richmond, Va., as his home, was picked up on the street last night in a dazed condition and carried to the station house. It was with difficulty that he could give any account of himself, and the suspicion that he had been drugged was aroused. Health Officer Miller, who was summoned, directed that the man be conveyed to the Alexandria Infirmary, where he remained last night. This morning he had greatly improved. It was believed last night he was suffering from alcoholic poisoning, and had also taken laudanum. General Matters.
